Reading Part 2

Read the text about children's presents. Then look at the pictures. Match the names of the children with the presents they received. Write the names in the box under the correct picture.

Mike wanted a watch with a square face but he got one with a round face instead.

Nicky had so many books about wild animals that we gave her one about space.

Chris is still really keen on cycling and was pleased with his special biking gloves.

Petra had a panda to add to her soft toy collection.

Andy's got a new case for carrying his school books.

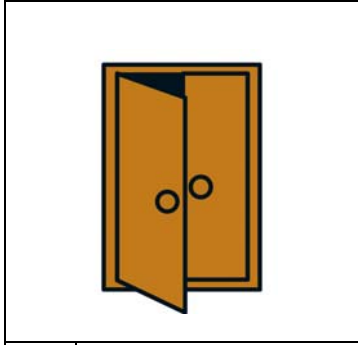

Jane's got so many soft toys, we gave her a cupboard to put them all in.

Lily's old bike was too small for her so she's got a new one with lights at the front and back.

Fred's always late for everything, so now he's got a clock for his bedroom wall. It's a big square one.

Philip's always reading his space books in bed. He needed a good reading lamp, so we gave him one.

Katy's cupboards are completely full of toys so we got her a bookcase for all her school things.

Reading Part 3

Read the letter. Write down information about the letter on the notepad. The first one is an example. Use no more than four words for each note.

Hi Rachel

Good news! I've found a drama club for us. Now we can start practicing for our careers as film stars!

The club which you told me about 'Class Act', isn't running any more. I don't know why it closed, but Mum heard about a new one and rang the people up. It's called 'Stage Struck' and it sounds really good. Sabrina and Peter go there too and love it. And we are much better than them!

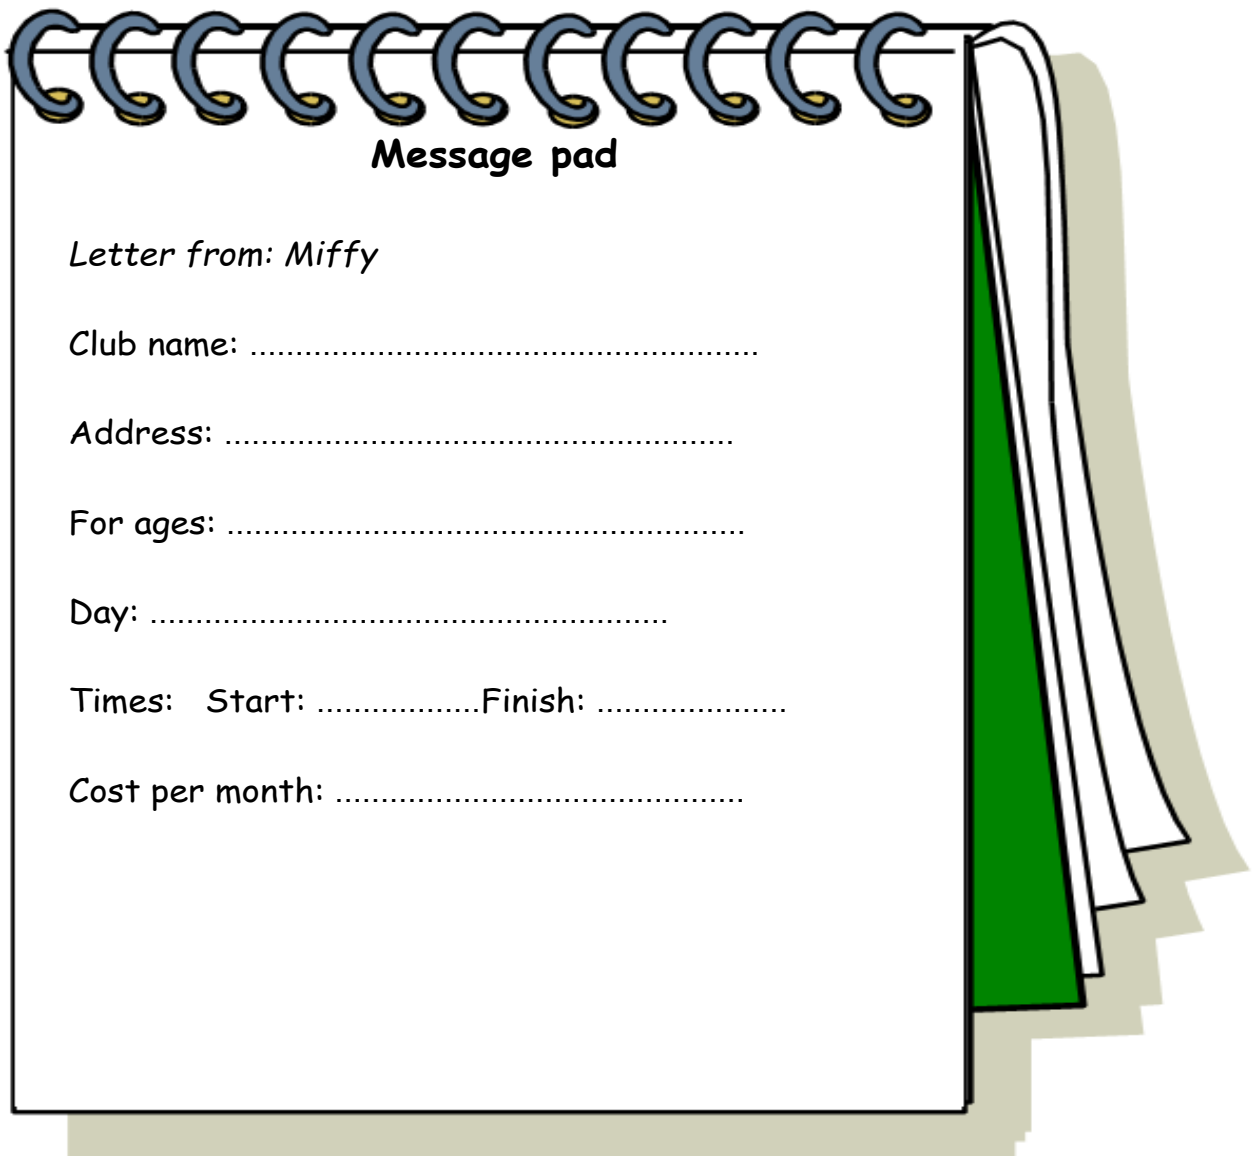

It's on Richard Road (number 23, next to the bank), so we can take a bus to the High Street and walk from there. The club doesn't accept children under seven and the oldest you can be is fourteen. We're both ten, so it's perfect for us.

Mum says that it did run on Monday and Friday evenings, but now it just runs on Saturday mornings. I think that's better for us, don't you?

We are both free then and don't have school. It starts at ten o'clock in the morning. That's good because I don't get up until nine! It lasts for three hours, and my mum can pick us up when it finishes. Mum works in town until 12.30pm every day.

You pay for each session separately. It's 4.00 per session, so that'll be 16.00 for four sessions. I hope that's OK with you. Say yes!

Love
Miffy

Reading and Writing

Read the letter from your penfriend, John. Write a reply to John, answering all his questions.

How many classmates do you have? What is your teacher's name? Who is your best friend? What is your favourite subject? Tell me what you like doing in your free time. Do you play any sports? Please write and tell me everything about you.

Best wishes

John
